Overview

LEADERS
LANGUAGES CENTRE

The Spoken Arabic course is designed for non-Arabic speakers eager to embark on a journey into the Arabic language and culture. Focusing on the rich and unique GCC dialect, this course will help learners build a strong foundation in conversational Arabic while gaining insights into GCC traditions, values, and social customs.

The course incorporates real-life conversations, role-playing, videos, interactive team activities and games to enrich the learning experience and make it more enjoyable.

With simple, practical lessons and real-life scenarios, students will develop essential communication skills that allow them to engage meaningfully with locals and navigate everyday situations confidently. The course also integrates cultural highlights to foster deeper understanding and appreciation of Arab heritage, encouraging learners to connect with the community and feel at home.

Miss Amani is truly one of the best teachers I have ever had. She teaches Arabic with great passion, patience, and dedication. Her way of explaining lessons is very clear and engaging, which makes learning Arabic much easier and more enjoyable for students.

She is always supportive and encourages everyone in the class to do their best. Miss Amani creates a positive and respectful learning environment where students feel comfortable asking questions and improving their skills. Because of her teaching style, many students become more confident in speaking and understanding Arabic.

In addition to being an excellent teacher, Miss Amani is very kind, friendly, and respectful to all her students. Her professionalism and enthusiasm make every class interesting and inspiring. I feel very lucky to have such a wonderful Arabic teacher.

Thank you, Miss Amani, for your dedication and for helping us learn and appreciate the Arabic language.

We had Arabic language training conducted by Ms. Amani from Leaders Training Centre at Hamad Hospital, and it was a wonderful experience. Ms. Amani is very active, energetic, and highly engaging. Her teaching style is clear, interactive, and easy to understand, which made the sessions enjoyable and effective. She explained the concepts patiently and encouraged participation, creating a fun and comfortable learning environment. The training was well-organized, informative, and truly helpful for beginners. Overall, we had a great time learning Arabic with her, and I really appreciate her dedication and teaching skills.

It was a pleasure to attend the spoken Arabic beginners' course taught by Khoulood. She has expert teaching skills and is one of the best ones in Qatar by far for teaching Arabic. Moreover, her command over English language is astute making it easy to explain it to non Arabic speakers. I highly recommend her if anyone is interested in learning Arabic.
